

Price-giving ceremony CVI Flyinge2-3*

The competitors and lungers in the 2-3* competitions should gather in the warm up arena appr. 15:45.

The winning horse in all classes will take part in the ceremony as well as the best horse in Squad, Individual and Pas De Deux. (will be announced according to the scores)

All the winning horses will get a blanket to put on, before entering the arena. The horses should be equipped according the rules.

The entry will be in nation order. The stewards will be organizing this. The competitors will walk in first.

Then the horses will enter in a horse parade. (in the order below) The horse parade is as an walking lap of honour. The speaker will announce their name and winning class. The horses will enter in the following order: Ind, Pas De Deux and Squad (see order below). The best horses at the end. After they have been announced they will walk out.

The competitors should stand in lines with their faces to the speaker tower. The vaulters should stand in the middle of the circle. The podium will be in the front of the circle.

The price giving will take place in the following order:

CVI 2*:

- Ind. Children
- Ind. Junior
- Ind. Senior
- Pas de Deux Junior
- Pas de Deux Senior
- Junior Squad
- Senior Squads

CVI 3*

- Ind. female
- Ind. male
- Pas de Deux
- Squad

The competitors will be called up to the podium and the national anthem will be played

When the whole ceremony is over, then the competitors will run the lap of honor at the end and out.

The non-placed competitors will receive rosettes on the way out of the arena.

PRIZEGIVING CEREMONY SUNDAY

